

JEROEN CREMERS

Artist Statement:

The works by Jeroen Cremers have a dystopian air about them. His artwork shows enlarged body parts and utensils, a kind of 'wonderland', as the artist calls it. A universe of strangers, abandoned objects reminiscent of remnants of ancient cultures or cartoonish worlds. Made with scavenged materials like paper and cardboard, his collages, paintings and installations show an absurd reality filled with twisted heads, pinocchio giants or giant hands and fingers. Recently Jeroen has been incorporating ceramics into his work again. He expanded his wonderland with bizarre animalistic creatures, organic objects and weaponry.

Born 1972, Reuver, the Netherlands

Studied sculpture at the Maastricht Academy of Fine Arts and Design 1996 -2000

Lives and works in Berlin
